Every effort has been made to make this map reflect the most accurate and up-to-date information available. However, trail conditions change, and the user is fully responsible for their safety. The publisher, designer, supporting clubs, advertisers, and contributing to the development of this map, accept no responsibility for conditions thereof and assume no liability for injury or accident. Some trails may be open to the public only by special privilege granted to the snowmobile clubs which maintain these trails. All trails are subject to closure and trail conditions may change without notice. USE AT YOUR OWN RISK. SNOWMOBILE FOR YOUR OWN SAFETY.

Snowmobiling is allowed on private lands by the generosity of private landowners. Please show appreciation by respecting signs and private property.

Trail Signs and Descriptions

Many signs are used along trails in our region. These are for your safety, as well as to protect property owners and other riders. Please familiarize yourself with, and obey all signage. Thank you.

Trail Identification

You will see these at the beginning of each trail, as well as at major intersections.

No Snowmobiling

These signs mark trails where land owners do not want you to ride. Please obey these signs.

Object Marker

Used to mark bridge abutments, other hazards on the trail itself.

Stop Sign

Used at each highway, private road, railroad crossings or blind intersection.

Stop Ahead

Used with stop sign, but is placed well before the stop sign to slow down.

Caution

Used prior to or at potential hazards. They may be placed at the bottom of the signs to indicate exactly what the hazard is: are, such as trees, water crossing, rocks, etc.

Directional Arrows

Used prior to major changes in direction.

Trail Blaze

You will see these along the trail to reassure you that you are on a snowmobile trail.

No Motorized Vehicles

Trail is not open to any vehicles except snowmobiles.

Please Stay On Marked Trail

Used when going through tree stands, where landowners wish you to ride only on designated trail, not off-trail riding.

Katahdin Loop Trail

You will see these signs along the 126-mile loop trail around the Katahdin Region.
